

THE ORTHOPEDIC CLINIC AT PARK CITY www.rcmclinic.com M. Daniel Hatch, M.D.

Rehabilitation:

Subacromial Decompression (SAD) and Distal Clavicle Resection (DCR)

Phase 1 Sling	1) Discontinue after 1-2 days
Weeks 0- 6	<ol> <li>Begin Active shoulder motion in all planes (Supine to Seated)</li> <li>Hand, wrist and elbow active motion</li> <li>Initiate independent home motion</li> <li>Home exercise program – AAROM to AROM (wand exercise for external rotation, wall climbs, etc)</li> <li>Active scapular motion (shrugs, retraction)</li> <li>Isometrics</li> </ol>
Phase 2
Weeks 7-9	<ol> <li>Continue to advance to full active motion (all planes)</li> <li>Continue facilitating scapular stability</li> <li>Begin PRE/strengthening if full AROM</li> <li>Progress to overhead resistance with proper scapulohumeral rhythm</li> <li>Emphasize continued independent home stretching and transition to Independent home exercise program</li> </ol>
Week 10	<ol> <li>1) Return to regular activity as tolerated</li> <li>2) Maintenance Program (Independent HEP)         <ul> <li>Daily Stretching (all planes)</li> <li>Strengthening 2-3 times / week</li> </ul> </li> </ol>

Please check our website for updates: http://www.rcmclinic.com

